SANITARY BOARD.

The fortnightly meeting of the Sanitary Board was held yesterday, Mr. D. W. Tristram (President) presided, and there were also present:—Hon. Mr. W. Chatham, O.M.G. (Vice-President), Lieut. Colonel Younan, Dr. Fitzwilliams, Messrs. F. B. L. Bowley, Ng Hon Tsz, Chan Kai Ming, Dr. Clark (Medical Officer), and Mr. W. Bowen Rowlands (Secretary).

Mr. Bowley gave notice of his intention to ask the following questions:—

- 1.—Between what hours do the dust-carts and coolies with dust baskets patrol the streets of the City of Victoria and who supervises them?
- 2.—Is the regulation with reference to closely-fitting covers to dust-bins enforced?
- 3.—Are householders permitted to place dust-bins in the street over-night? If yes, are such bins kept covered?
- 4.—Is there any regulation to prevent the scattering or scattering of the contents of dust-bins and dustheaps in or near streets? If so what is it? and how and by whom it is enforced? and are there any means of preventing animals from similar actions?
- 5.—How often daily and between what hours are the streets swept?
- 6.—Is it not practicable to have the streets sprinkled with water before sweeping them in dusty weather?
- 7.—Can the Head of the Sanitary Department suggest any improvements in the present methods of removing household refuse and scavenging the streets or in the regulations relating thereto?

Lieut. Colonel YOUNAN inquired—The question applies equally to Kowloon. Could Mr. Bowley extend his questions to apply to Kowloon?

Dr. FITZWILLIAMS—Would Mr. Bowley further extend his questions to apply to Kowloon as well as Victoria? Bitter complaints are rife in Kowloon, especially in the region of Knutsford Terrace.

Mr. BOWLEY asked leave to amend the first question by inserting after the words "City of Victoria" "and Kowloon."

The President suggested that notice should be given of that alteration, as the conditions over there were different to the conditions in Victoria.

Mr. BOWLEY—I beg to ask the question as standing on the paper.

The President—As regards the first question, the coolies begin any time between three and four a.m. and continue till between 6 and 8.30. The carts start later, about 5.30 to 6, and finish about 8.30. During the middle of the morning, however, from about 9.45 to 11.30, the coolies are out again washing the streets, but not sweeping. About noon they start on the second sweeping and cleaning, which is continued till about 3.30 or 4 p.m.

As regards the second question the answer is in the negative. The chief reasons are, firstly, that covers somehow or other do get stolen, and, secondly, whether a dust-bin is round or square the tipping of it into carts soon knocks it out of shape and the cover will not fit. We cannot allow the city to remain in the same condition as Canton or any other Chinese city, but at the same time we cannot make it so clean or so full of regulations that Chinese will not live in it.

As regards the third question, the answer is in the affirmative. The second part of the question is answered by my reply to the second question. I may add that if householders were not allowed to do this the work of scavenging on the upper levels would be considerably delayed, and the consequence would be that rubbish would be coming down much later in the morning.

As regards the fourth question, there is no specific regulation that I can find except under Ordinance 1 of 1915, which would apply if a person picking over rubbish scattered it about the street. Our men have general instructions to move on anybody found picking over rubbish, for they cannot spend the time to arrest anybody so found.

The President expressed regret that he had omitted in answering the first question to state that there are three scavenging inspectors, one for the eastern half of the city and the Peak, one for the western half of the city, and one supervising the dust depots on the Praya, barges, carts, bullocks, etc. Under the inspectors are eleven head uniformed foremen. Under them again is a number of uniformed foremen. These were the contractor's foremen. Under the foremen are assistant foremen, whom we may call working foremen, to the number of 18. Their chief duty is to go round during the sweeping and see that every nullah and drain is properly cleaned.

As regards the fifth question, the streets are swept daily between 3 a.m. and 8 a.m. and again between 12 and 3 to 4 p.m., except Health District No. 3, which is the Central District. This district includes Pedder Street to the Naval Yard and also Queen's Road as far as Arsenal Street. It is not swept a second time, and the men on it are engaged in washing only. Carts go through and pick up any refuse from large establishments that may have accumulated since the morning.

As regards the sixth question, I am somewhat in doubt, but I will assume that "streets" mean the whole of the streets of the city, and "before sweeping" means immediately before sweeping. The answer to that is, it is quite possible at a cost. The configuration of Hongkong makes it impossible that water carts should go anywhere beyond the lower levels, and the side streets are too narrow or too full of traffic. We have ten water carts which are going up and down the main streets of the lower level right away down to the Cotton Mills. They start work about 8 o'clock and finish just before noon. They go to work again at 1.30 and finish any time between 5 and 6. It is impossible for the number of carts to do any more work.

As regards the seventh question, I should like to remind members that the present system is an improvement on the old contractor's system, and it has only been running some four months and a few days now. Having referred to the report of the Select Committee recommending the adoption of the present system—signed by Messrs. Wolfe, Bowley and Chan Kai Ming,—the President continued—As regards the question itself I cannot suggest any improvements on the method, but I can suggest considerable improvements in the carrying out of that method, at a cost. If the Board are prepared to recommend it, I can arrange to have gangs of coolies with sprinkling buckets to follow round after the gangs of sweepers, and we can increase the number of sweepers so that the work will be done more quickly.

I would like to give members some idea of the amount of work got out of the coolies. They get up at 4 o'clock in the morning and work till 8 or 8.30 when they go home to breakfast, and turn out again at 10 or 10.30, when they are employed washing down all concrete lanes and all stone steps and galleries. It is impossible to get through the whole of each district every day, so it has been arranged that the whole of each district is washed twice a week. This takes from 10 to 11.30. They go back then and have a cup of tea or a drink of some kind and turn out again at noon. After that they continue on until the work is finished, which in some districts carries them on until 4 o'clock, and they have to get up at 3 next morning. The old contractor employed 431 coolies, where we are now employing 233. The work could no doubt be done better and more speedily if we had more men. I should like to invite members to come round with me to the early morning sweeping or the second sweeping and see the difficulties our men have to contend with. No amount of prosecutions can convince the Chinese that a street ought not to be used as a workshop or a stall. If we go along private streets we can see a stack 90 feet high of kerosene tins. The scavenging coolie is the lowest of the low and so low that no one likes to live next to him. If he were to ask that the tins be removed he would probably get his head smashed; and he prefers to wait the arrival of the inspector.

Mr. BOWLEY—Might I ask the date of the report of the Select Committee which you mentioned?

The President—19th August, 1912. Mr. BOWLEY—Might I ask that the details of the present system be printed and circulated to members of the Board? Under the old system the conditions of the scavenging contractor were printed and all members of the Board had copies of it so that they could refer to them at any moment. Details of the present system, so far as I know, have never been circulated.

The President handed details to Mr. Bowley.

Mr. BOWLEY—What I am asking is that the present departmental system should be printed and circulated. The President—As far as I am aware there is no great change in the actual method, except that we are doing it with our own men and under special supervision. The working foremen are our own. Do I understand that you wish me to print the details which I gave as part of my reply to the last question and as many more as I can find?

Mr. BOWLEY—Under the old system the contract for the routine work was set out in printed conditions. I imagine that under the present system the work should be set out under similar conditions.

The President—I will if members desire it, endeavor to embody the present arrangements with regard to the disposal of refuse in a form to be printed. But it will be a work of some time.

Dr. FITZWILLIAMS—Will the President give his reason for stating that this new system is an improvement on the old system? Four months and a few days seems a short time in which to judge.

The President—I presume a scheme recommended by the Board will be considered by them to be an improvement.

Dr. FITZWILLIAMS—Hardly until it is proved.

The President—Do I understand that you wish to label the scheme after four months as a failure?

Dr. FITZWILLIAMS—No, but I ask on what reasons you stated that it was an improvement.

The Vice-President—I think I can say from my own observation that the rubbish from the Hill district reaches the dust depots now, whereas formerly it was deposited on the hillside.

The President—I have only such information as my staff can give me. They are working with half the number of scavenging coolies the contractor used, and they have no hesitation in saying that the work on them is much lighter than when they had to drive the contractor's coolies. I am prepared to withdraw the word improvement and call it new scheme.

Dr. FITZWILLIAMS—No, you used the word improvement, and I want to know why you were so sure of it. That was all. The discussion then dropped.

EUROPEAN CEMETERY AT KOWLOON.

Correspondence was submitted on the proposed European cemetery at Kowloon. The Director of Public Works inquired—I understand it has been decided not to notify the selection of the area as a site for the cemetery until the boundary wall, etc., has been constructed.

The Board agreed to recommend that the construction of a chapel and native quarters for this cemetery should be placed in the Estimates for 1914.

THE ALLEGED THEFT OF BUSINESS DOCUMENTS.

DEFENDANT DISCHARGED.

At the Magistrate's yesterday, before Mr. C. D. Melbourne, the hearing was resumed of the case in which A. F. de Remedios, aged 27, clerk, was charged with the larceny of press copy letters and a private telegraph code book, the property of H. Cruz & Co.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster (instructed by Mr. Leo d'Almada) prosecuted, and Mr. F. C. Jenkin (instructed by Mr. Crow, of Messrs. Hastings & Hastings) defended.

On the application of Mr. Jenkin, the office boy, Chung Wah, was recalled for cross-examination, and said he did not know the defendant cut any leaves out of the press copy books, but Wong Man had told him accused did so on the evening of the 11th February. He did not tell Mr. Cruz immediately on his return from Manila, because he did not know anything about it then. The press copy book produced was lying open on the desk, and witness saw the defendant put a pair of scissors into his pocket. Witness did not know a man named Gracia, but knew that somebody was working in the office during prosecutor's absence. He was between 16 and 17 years of age, and was a Portuguese. He was the only man who worked on the books during the absence of Mr. Cruz, and he continued to perform the same duties when prosecutor returned. He had never seen a telegraph code book like that produced in the office, although it was his duty to clean up the office.

Mr. Jenkin submitted that there was no case to answer. His Worship would remember, after a long adjournment, that this was a charge of larceny against the prosecutor's one-time assistant after hours, who, as Mr. Cruz had told them, had conducted practically the whole of his English correspondence. Then the prosecutor told the Court that defendant eventually left his service, and the first complaint against him was that of stealing certain papers for his own information, with the object of taking away a certain amount of the prosecutor's business. There was no need for him to dwell on the academic definition of larceny, and he thought that in this case there was nothing in the evidence which would support or come within the four corners of any definition of larceny. With regard to the press copy letters, there was no evidence of any such letters having been found, and yet the man was taken by surprise under a search warrant by Detective Knight. The man's belongings were searched, and all that could be found were certain draft letters and the typewritten document which was now referred to as a private telegraph code. One man said he saw the defendant put some tissue paper into his pocket, but he could not read English, and could not have known what was on the paper. Counsel further commented on the fact that Mr. Cruz had admitted that he was not told until nearly three weeks afterwards.

Mr. Alabaster, in reply, said there was no evidence for the defence. Defendant had collected the drafts of all the letters that had been written by the firm and had taken them away with him with the object of opening up business with some of the constituents of Mr. Cruz. Learned Counsel's defence was that the prosecution charged him with stealing only three sheets, while he had stolen a whole flock. He had written two letters on behalf of the firm who were now employing him to the very people to whom the copy letters were written. It was not a crime to steal a business connection, but if a letter was stolen with that wicked intent then it amounted to larceny, and that was what the defendant had done. The telegraph code was found on the defendant, and no explanation had been given.

The code was sworn to be the property of the prosecutor. The man was left half-an-hour in the office by himself, and then he copied the letters. It was perfectly clear and obvious that he did steal, and he submitted there was ample evidence.

His Worship dismissed the case.

Mr. Alabaster asked his Worship to state a case. His Worship had not given grounds as to why he dismissed the case, and he would ask whether it was for want of evidence, or other grounds.

His Worship—After asking me to state a case, I cannot answer any questions now. I much prefer to state a case.

Mr. Alabaster withdrew his original application.

His Worship said he dismissed the case for the want of evidence. There was not sufficient evidence to call upon the defence.

Mr. Alabaster—Not that the evidence was disbelieved? Otherwise there might be reflections, as your Worship will understand.

Mr. Alabaster asked for liberty to apply to his Worship to state a case, and the application was granted.

THE MAGISTRACY.

GAMBLING AT WANCHAI.

Before Mr. F. A. Hazland yesterday, ten men were charged by Inspector McHardy with gambling at No. 86, Wanchai Road. His Worship fined each of the men $3 or seven days in default.

DISORDERLY BEHAVIOUR.

Acting-Inspector Terrett proceeded against a man and a woman for behaving in a disorderly manner in Kowloon City. It was stated that the two defendants had quarrelled over some property. The first defendant was fined $2.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF ARMS.

A Chinese who had only just landed from America was found to be in possession of a revolver and ammunition, and when he was fined $50 by Mr. Melbourne yesterday he smiled gratefully at his Worship and said "All right."

OPIUM SMOKING AT WEST POINT.

Inspector Dymond proceeded against twelve men for frequenting an opium den at West Point. The first man, who was the keeper of the house, was fined $250, or three months' imprisonment in default, and the remainder were fined $3 each.

THE RECENT HAUL OF LOTTERY TICKETS.

The two wharf coolies who were charged with being in unlawful possession of over 30,000 lottery tickets, and who stated that they were instructed to fetch the boxes containing the tickets from a ship, again appeared before Mr. Melbourne yesterday. They were discharged, his Worship directing that the lottery tickets should be forfeited.

A NEGLECTFUL LUKONG.

Inspector Morrison, prosecuting a woman for attempting to commit suicide, said the defendant's story was that her husband, who was a Chinese constable, had not been contributing towards her support for the last two months, and had assaulted her on the previous morning. The constable stated that he gave her food and treated her properly. The woman was bound over to be of good behaviour for six months.

THEFT BY A BANISHEE.

A particularly villainous-looking Chinese was charged before Mr. Hazland with the larceny of a quantity of clothing and money from a house in Yaumati. Sergt. Brown said the man was arrested by a lukong whilst in possession of the stolen articles. The man apparently gained access to the house by scaling a water-pipe. He was a returned banishee, having been deported in January last. Defendant, who pleaded guilty, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment on the charge of theft, and a further six months for returning from banishment.

ADVERTISING EXTRAORDINARY.

Before Mr. C. D. Melbourne, the manager of the Edison Kinetophone agency was charged with unlawfully affixing a bill on the notice board at the Central Police Station on the 30th April. There was a similar charge of posting three bills on the retaining wall in Ico House Street. Defendant said he understood from the Hongkong Printing Press, who were assuming responsibility, that a coolie was sent to post up the bills, and had stuck them up there without direction to do so. In reply to his Worship he said he had asked the printing firm to print the bills and post them. They were acting as his agents. His Worship cautioned the defendant, remarking that he was liable to a fine of $50.

A CHAIR COOLIE'S "CUMSHA."

Mr. Hazland heard a charge of assault brought by a chair coolie against Mr. Charles Stark. Defendant said he engaged a chair at the bottom of Wyndham Street and got out at Robinson Road. He tendered 15 cents to the coolie, who was dissatisfied with the fare, and ran after him for about 20 yards, gripping him by the arm. The coolie was in a filthy condition, and he (defendant) naturally objected to being mauled by a dirty coolie. Losing his temper, he "went for" the coolie and struck him twice. Complainant was put into the box, and said that when defendant gave him 15 cents he asked for five cents cumsha. His Worship told the coolie that he must not ask for cumsha. Complainant said that defendant then kicked him in the chest. He called a policeman, and then defendant gave him a blow in the eye. Complainant told the lukong to summons the defendant. He denied catching hold of the defendant. His Worship said he thought defendant used more violence than was necessary, and fined him $10.

THE SUNG MURDER CASE

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN HUNG AND YUNG.

FULL TRANSLATION.

We publish below a full translation of the telegram sent to the President, the two Houses of Parliament and the Cabinet by Chen Tui-hsi of Kiangsu and Ying, the Civil Governor, recently.

Referring to the murder of Sung Chiao-jen, former Minister of Agriculture and Forestry, a prima facie case was made out by both the International Mixed Court and the French Court. Thereafter, the murderous prisoners Wu Shi-yin, alias Wu Fok-min, and Ying Kuei-shing, were handed over to us respectively on the 18th and 17th instant. On the 18th instant the International Mixed Court sent us one five-shot pistol, still containing two cartridges, which was the implement with which the murder was committed, two cartridge-cases, three books of telegraph codes, two sealed packets of evidence of letters and telegrams, and one sealed leather bag, all of which were seized at a search of prisoner Ying's house made by the Captain-Superintendents of the British and French Police and others. Separately, five packets containing evidence of letters and telegrams, seized at prisoner Ying's house, were handed over by the Captain-Superintendents of Police of the International Settlement in the presence of the Court. By Chen Yin, President of the District Court of Procurator of Shanghai, a large wooden box, containing evidence of letters, telegrams and books, and a leather hand-bag, which were seized by the French Police at prisoner Ying's house, were also sent to us for examination. After having received these, and ordered the murderous prisoners to be kept strictly in custody, we also obtained the copies of telegrams most recently exchanged between the two accused Hung and Ying which we had examined already at the Shanghai Telegraph Office on March 20th, to check their translation again.

For several consecutive days, we, in conjunction with Chen Yin, President of the District Court of Procurator, and others, have been carrying out the examination (of the evidence) at the office of the Shanghai Commissioner of Foreign Affairs. We, Chen Teh-chuan and Ying Teh-hung, being superior officials of the province, certainly possess the right and power of executing the work of examination, according to the laws of the Court (which Court is not clear); and, in addition, we have received the order of the President issued on March 22nd. We have, therefore, carefully and minutely examined the evidence of this case, with a view to discovering the name of the instigator (or the names of instigators) and arriving at the truth. We have jointly attached our seals and photographed copies of all the important evidence in reference to this case.

As regards preserving all the evidence with great care, we hereby submit a summarized report of all the important parts thereof before you.

We find the two code-books, marked "Ying" and "Chuan," were mostly used in telegrams sent and received by prisoner Ying.

On January 14th of this year, Premier Chao addressed a letter to prisoner Ying, which reads:—"Book of code-words is sent to you herewith, please receive it. You may telegraph direct to the Cabinet hereafter, etc." A book of code-words was sent beside the letter, and on that book was written the words:—"The Cabinet 'Ying' codes, January 14th, 2nd year of the Republic."

Prisoner Ying addressed a telegram on January 26th directly to Premier Chao, using the "Ying" codes, in which he said:—"Of the blind contention about the Parliament, I have already discovered the true aspect, which Hung will return and explain in person, etc."

On February 1st, prisoner Ying sent a telegram to Premier Chao, using the "Ying" codes, in which appeared the words:—"As regards the drafting of the Constitution, I have used literature to support and spread, and gold to conciliate (men) to the two ideas, namely, (1) beside the Premier, no ballot be taken, and (2) to dissolve the Parliament. Beside these, separate plans are matured to deal with Ho Hui-ming and Tai Tien-chou, etc."

On February 2nd, prisoner Ying sent a telegram to Chen Chin-shih for retransmission to Premier Chao, using the "Ying" codes, and containing the words:—"Sun, Huang, Li and Sung (i.e., Dr. Sun Yat-sen, General Huang Hsing, Vice-President Li Yuan-hung and Mr. Sung Chiao-jen), are showing the fiercest activity, while the Kuomintang have suddenly decided to elect Sung Premier. Have already bought in Japan some nasty history of Sun, Huang and Sung, and secured copies of statements and warrant in the Police Court with reference to the criminal charge of fraud against Sung, of which 100,000 pamphlets shall be lithographically printed and sold at Yokohama, etc."

We also find that Hung Shih-tsu came to Shanghai with a letter of introduction from Chang Shao-tseng (Military Adviser to the President, the letter was addressed to Ying Kuei-shing). Very much correspondence was exchanged between Hung and Ying.

admiration for your ability and said, 'since you are certain of success, he expects you to proceed, and so on.' I also spoke to him about the money, but he said he must require you to send him details of the Sung Fraud Case together with a photo of the warrant as a proof. You had better use the 'Chuan' codes hereafter, etc."

On February 8th, Hung sent to prisoner Ying a letter in which are the words:—"Is Sung's case obtainable or not, as the Central Government is very anxious for it, etc."

On February 11th, Hung in a letter to prisoner Ying said:—"As soon as Sung's case is obtained you can come and claim payment, etc."

In a letter from Hung to prisoner Ying dated February 22nd, there appear these words:—"Your letter has been handed by myself to the President and the Premier, and they have read it. In future, do not address telegram to the Cabinet. Old Chao has given me the 'Ying' codes, fearing that Mr. Chen (Chen Chin-shih) is not secret enough. He has ordered me to manage it alone. Your request for money must be made after the arrival of the 'things', and the amount must not be more than 300,000, etc."

In a telegram dated March 10th from prisoner Ying to Hung Shih-tsu, using the "Chuan" codes, are the words:—"Re 8 per cent. public loan, if you point out a bank in Shanghai, I will buy 3,500,000 and pay 60.20 for 100. Please submit this for me and reply to-day, etc."

On March 13th, prisoner Ying addressed a letter to Hung, stating:—"When one reads the report of Sung Chiao-jen's addresses delivered in Nanking, in the Mingpao, one will know at once what influence he possesses and what object he is aiming at. As the matter affects our great interest, we should adopt the expediency of pulling out the straw from underneath the pan. If you do not do away with Sung, endless trouble will result, and I am afraid the national position will be disturbed, etc."

On March 13th, Hung Shih-tsu addressed prisoner Ying a telegram, using the "Chuan" codes, which reads:—"Your telegram of the 10th has been handed to the Minister of Finance for decision. But the loan bears 6 per cent. (rate of interest) only. I fear your discount is too large to be accepted. If you destroy Sung, you will be rewarded with the Order of Merit. Use every discretion but be careful how you proceed, etc."

On March 14th, prisoner Ying sent a telegram to Hung Shih-tsu, using the "Ying" codes, and reading:—"The insurgent leader of Liangshan (this leader's name was Sung Kiang, having the same surname as the late Mr. Sung Chiao-jen), is again causing trouble everywhere; he is really very dangerous. I have already issued an urgent order to have him arrested (or extorted) somehow. Please deliver my report, awaiting instructions, etc."

On March 17th, Hung Shih-tsu telegraphed to prisoner Ying, using the "Ying" codes, and saying:—"Your telegram of 14th reached me. Loan bonds (terms) specially granted; on what day (see you to pay cash and take the bonds). Separately wire me how much you will give me. Reply to-day, etc."

On March 18th, Hung again telegraphed to prisoner Ying, using the "Chuan" codes, which reads:—"Re your telegram of the 14th, you are permitted to act accordingly."

On March 18th, he again telegraphed to prisoner Ying, saying:—"Proceed in the matter quickly as suggested." At 2 o'clock on the night of March 20th, the day on which ex-Minister Sung was assassinated, prisoner Ying sent a telegram in "Chuan" code to Hung Shih-tsu, in which he said:—"The urgent order issued was executed at 40 minutes (past 10) on the 20th. Please submit my report the first thing, etc."

On March 21st, he addressed another telegram to Hung in "Chuan" code, which reads:—"My telegram of 20th must have been noted by you. The insurgent leader is already annihilated, none of our army was killed or wounded, which is a matter for congratulation. Please submit this report, etc."

On March 23rd, Hung Shih-tsu wrote to prisoner Ying, saying:—"Your two telegrams, dated 20th and 21st, both noted. I shall not reply in any other way, for I will arrive in Shanghai on April 7th."

This letter was sent by express post and delivered to us by the post office after the arrest of prisoner Ying. The Tientsin Office telegraphed to the Shanghai Office to return it, but the Shanghai Office had already sent it to me, Chen Teh-chuan, through the Bureau of Foreign Affairs.

In all the correspondence, Hung calls Ying "brother" and subscribes himself "elder brother."

We also find several letters from Premier Chao to Hung Shih-tsu from amongst the evidence in prisoner Ying's house, and we think Hung Shih-tsu must have forwarded these original letters to prisoner Ying. In one of these letters, Premier Chao wrote to Hung thus:—"Mr. Ying's receipts are not quite intelligible. I would still request that it be managed by one hand (i.e., one person) and that the President be told clearly before it can be done, etc."

We also find that prisoner Ying has composed a "concise proclamation" purporting to be issued by the "Sacred Court of Justice Supervising the Parliament and the Government," of which fifty-two copies were made out and addressed but not yet posted, to the newspapers of all places, with postage stamps affixed thereto. This proclamation is the same as the one which the Cabinet forwarded to all the provinces in a circular telegram of March 26th.
